

Step1)

Create a repository in github

Step 2)in git desktop click on clone and paste the url and click

Step 3)

Go to the project which want to push the code into the github and copy the all the files in that project and paste into the github->projectname(importnet) and check the git desktop and put some required msg and click on the commit and push to the origin

